Job/Fellowship Reference: Substituição--Substituição CEHUM2014Main research field: Language sciencesSub research field: LinguisticsJob summary:

The Centro de Estudos Humanísticos da Universidade do Minho (CEHUM) wishes to admit, for a period of 25 months, a researcher with a PhD in the field of Psycholinguistics, with a solid background in theoretical linguistics (Syntax/Semantics) and with relevant research in one of the following domains: language processing, first or second language acquisition, child language impairment.

Job description:

The candidate will join a recently created research group at CEHUM dedicated to Theoretical and Experimental Linguistics. CEHUM is an interdisciplinary research unit that broadly covers the fields of Literature, Linguistics, Philosophy and Culture. The Linguistics Group develops and promotes research in different areas of Linguistics and is divided in two groups: Applied Linguistics and Theoretical and Experimental Linguistics.

The researcher to be admitted is expected to enhance investigation and particular projects in the field of Psycholinguistics in collaboration with the other members of the Group. There are no teaching obligations. The researcher will have the opportunity to apply for funding in order to develop new projects, but will also collaborate with ongoing projects. Even though previous work on Portuguese is not required, the candidate should be willing to carry out and supervise research on Portuguese. To apply, please send CV, research project (2 pages maximum), at least one recommendation letter and a motivation letter. The deadline to receive the applications is 30/09/2014. Questions and applications should be sent to ceh@ilch.uminho.pt, with the subject "Postdoc Linguistics" – Job Reference: Substituição CEHUM2014
